

Stipendium Hungaricum Students' Programme

TRANSPORTATION

Presenter: Sherwan Yassin – Mentor

Why Transportation Matters

- Easy and affordable travel = less stress
- Helps students explore Budapest and Gödöllő..etc
- Important for daily commute, shopping, sightseeing, or any other purpose.

A blue articulated bus is driving on a wet city street. The street is reflective, showing the bus and the surrounding buildings. The bus is moving towards the right side of the frame.

Two yellow trams are on a city street. The tram in the foreground is moving towards the camera, while the one behind it is further away. They are on a track, and there are trees and buildings in the background.

A white subway train is stopped at a station platform. The platform has a tiled floor and a wall with some posters. A person is standing on the platform, looking at the train. The train is moving towards the right side of the frame.
