1. In the SHS programme, it is possible to apply to participate in the bachelor, master, one-tier master and doctoral courses of higher education institutions, Hungarian language preparatory training courses, postgraduate specialist training courses related to sports, as well as Hungarian language preparatory training courses organised by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade or the background institution entrusted with the performance of this public task.
2. After completing a Hungarian language preparatory training course, scholarship holders are entitled to apply only for Hungarian bachelor or one-tier master programmes.
3. The Board of Trustees of the Tempus Public Foundation can group/limit the courses offered in the call for applications based on sports, in accordance with the framework agreement concluded with the higher education institutions, in which the institutions can indicate whether they are able to support the participation of scholarship holders in competitive higher education sports.
4. The call for applications makes the courses available to applicants representing individual sports on the basis of the register mentioned in I.4.d of this regulation.
5. Within the framework of the SHS programme application is only possible for full-time training courses.
6. When offering courses, institutions carefully consider whether their study and exam regulations are compatible with the requirements necessary to ensure a dual career path in the institution.

III. Differences in individual student application eligibility

1. A foreign citizen may submit a valid application in the SHS—excluding citizens of a member state of the European Union or of another state party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area, as well as based on the international treaty concluded between the European Community and its member states and a state that is not a party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area, persons with the same legal status as a citizen of a state that is a party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area in terms of the right to free movement and residence—who
 - a. was nominated by the international sports federation, or
 - b. when applying, was declared suitable from a sports professional point of view by the professional sports association of the country of his/her nationality, provided that the call for applications offers this opportunity.
2. Nomination according to point III.1.a of this regulation also means the certification and acknowledgement of sports performance at a level recognised by the international sports federation. The call for applications specifies the sports for which an application can be submitted according to III.1.a. Those applicants who are not nominated according to III.1.a are considered applicants according to point III.1.b in the further parts of the procedure, provided that the call for applications offers this opportunity.
3. The applicant is required to comply with the Hungarian sports health regulations, which is to be confirmed by a sports medical examination after arrival.
4. The applicant is required to attach a copy of his/her competition license when applying.
5. In case of applicants admitted according to point III.1.a. of this regulation, the total score is 200 points, of which maximum 100 points are given by the higher education institution as part of the admission procedure, and another 100 points are formed based on the nomination shortlist rankings of the international sports federation.

6. In case of applicants admitted according to point III.1.b of this regulation, the total score is 200 points, which can be obtained by doubling the maximum of 100 points that is the institutional admission result, and within the 200-point limit, a maximum of 40 additional points can be obtained based on the prioritisation of the Advisory Body that assists the selection procedure.
7. The call for applications may contain sport-specific age limits.

IV. Sports participating

1. The SHS programme is open to applications from sports that have participated in at least three consecutive Olympic Games immediately preceding the date of the scholarship contract in the year in question.
2. The actual list as referred to in point IV.1 is set out in the call for application.

V. The student application and selection process

1. Details of the student application process are set out in the call for application.
2. The preliminary technical inspection of the Tempus Public Foundation shall also cover the fulfilment of the conditions set out in Chapter III of this regulation.
3. The ranking of applicants under III.1.a. will be determined by the results of the admission tests, and the ranking of applicants with the same results will be determined by the position on the nomination shortlist.
4. The selection process may be assisted by an Advisory Body, which is operated by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade.
5. In team sports, due to the professional quotas of the university championships, the number of applicants per institution may be limited.

VI. Allowances and benefits of scholarship holders

1. In the SHS programme, in addition to the benefits of the scholarship programme, any of the organisations listed in Chapter I of this regulation may support the scholarship holder
 - a. with the preparation for sports competitions, with services that assist his/her academic progress in higher education or with further allowances,
 - b. with additional support concerning travels for sport or study purposes.

VII. Rights and obligations of scholarship holders

1. The requirement of staying habitually in Hungary must be applied in such a way that trips related to an athlete's career (competitions, training camps, medical treatment, rehabilitation, etc.) are automatically permitted by the higher education institution, based on the certification of the host sports organisation. Absences must not cause a breach of academic obligations and will not result in the withdrawal of a scholarship.
2. The Tempus Public Foundation may terminate the scholarship contract with the institution if the scholarship holder fails to comply with the terms and conditions of the scholarship contract, with the coaching instructions for trainings and competitions or with any other obligations related to the sport. If the scholarship holder is unable to comply with the sports related requirements for more than 3 months for health reasons, based on a sports doctor's opinion, he/she is entitled to finish the academic year started as a scholarship holder. Scholarship status will be continued if the student is considered medically fit to resume his/her sporting activity at the start of the new academic year.

3. The scholarship contract is concluded between the host institution and the scholarship holder. The host sports organisation shall conclude a separate contract with the scholarship holder. The international sports federation or the Hungarian national sports federation may conclude a separate contract with the scholarship holder.
4. The scholarship contract shall contain the identification number of the competition licence and the name of the Hungarian national sports federation which shall ensure the scholarship holder's registration, the validity of his/her sports contract and transfers to other sports organisations, as well as the specific conditions and obligations laid down in this regulation.
5. During the period of his/her student status, the scholarship holder shall, for the period specified in the call for applications, assist the development of Hungarian sport as a competitor, and shall participate as an amateur or professional athlete in competitions or competition systems organised or authorised by the relevant sports federation.
6. For the purposes of point 5, the scholarship holder shall maintain his/her competition licence issued by the Hungarian national sports federation or sports association at the host sports organisation as per point I.8, for the duration of the scholarship contract.
7. A scholarship contract can be concluded with a person who meets the Hungarian sports medical eligibility requirements.
8. The scholarship holder is obliged to study Hungarian as a foreign language in accordance with the Operational Regulations of the Stipendium Hungaricum programme, with the provision that failure to participate or to take the exam shall not be sanctioned.
9. The scholarship holder undertakes to represent the host higher education institution in the MEFS championship or MEFOB and to fulfil the obligations imposed by the professional sports organisation, such as participation in training sessions, competitions and other official events.
10. The scholarship holder undertakes to enter into a contract with the host sports organisation.
11. The scholarship holder undertakes to certify the fulfilment of his/her sports obligations towards the host higher education institution every month with the document issued by the host sports organisation.
12. Based on the provisions of point 2, the student's scholarship contract is automatically terminated with the termination of the athlete contract.
13. If the interests of university sports and competitive sports conflict over time, the interests of competitive sports take priority.
